

2025 MOCK GOVERNMENT 1 SOLUTION
PAPER 1

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. B. Government 2. C. agricultural societies. 3. D. capitalism 4. A. a suspected criminal must be given fair trial. 5. C. providing all the needs of its citizens. 6. C. need and ability 7. A. state. 8. B. more permanent than a government. 9. A. a contract between the rulers and the rule. 10. D. Public/Civil Service Commission 11. C. rule of law 12. B. popular sovereignty 13. C. well-informed electorates 14. B. respect the dignity and rights of others 15. A. social rights 16. D. praised or blamed publicly 17. D. standing orders. 18. B. smoothness in the administration of the state. 19. A. the exercise of excessive political powers 20. D. party manifesto 21. D. universal adult suffrage 22. B. participation 23. A. apathy. 24. D. mass party 25. C. ambassadors. | 26. D. absolute majority system 27. C. electorate 28. D. primary election 29. C. right to political appointment 30. A. Cabinet 31. B. executive. 32. D. it is financed mainly by private individuals 33. D. mandate. 34. C. Sierra Leone 35. A. exploit natural resources. 36. C. Bond of 1844. 37. D. were no longer spiritual heads of the people 38. C. Asafo Company. 39. A. inadequate British personnel 40. D. Governor. 41. B. intelligentsia. 42. B. the refusal of Africans to be culturally colonized 43. A. educated elites and chiefs 44. B. increased agitation 45. A. veto power of the governor 46. D. sponsor elections observer teams to monitor the conduct of elections. 47. B. promotes the country's national interest 48. B. K. A. Busia 49. B. eradicate poverty 50. C. of its control of outbreak of another World War. |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|