

SHS1 Government Objectives Solution
Section 1: Basics of Government
Objectives

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. B: an academic field of study.2. C: The Legislature3. C: an art or process.4. B: helps them understand how the government is supposed to work.5. D: Security6. B: career opportunities provided by the academic discipline.7. B: economic development.8. A: Knowing Rights & Responsibilities9. D: Sovereignty10. A: A large military11. C: narrow (traditional) view of development.12. B: broader view of human development.13. B: human well-being and social factors.14. C: Wealth.15. B: Authority.16. C: Traditional Authority.17. C: Charismatic Authority.18. C: legitimacy.19. C: the legitimate or legal right to use power.20. B: legitimacy.21. B: Socialism.22. B: Capitalism.23. B: ownership of the means of production.24. C: Direct Democracy.25. B: Indirect (Representative) Democracy.26. C: Democracy.27. C: Freedom of Expression and the Media28. C: Free Association and Assembly29. C: Feminism30. B: Rule of Law.31. C: Separation of Powers. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">32. B: Inclusion.33. B: prevent the concentration and abuse of power.34. B: Equity.35. B: recognizes different circumstances and provides specific support for an equal outcome.36. C: Consensus Building.37. B: legal procedures are fair, transparent, and consistent.38. D: Social, economic, and political39. B: Equity.40. C: the voices of historically excluded groups are heard in policymaking.41. A: enforce its laws and maintain its sovereignty.42. C: legitimacy without the people's consent.43. B: many modern economies are mixed, combining elements of both.44. B: the government is bound by the same laws as the citizens.45. C: the President could fire judges whose rulings they disagree with.46. B: the broader view of development is often more inclusive and equitable.47. B: It informs the public and acts as a watchdog against the abuse of power.48. B: more effective and user-friendly infrastructure for everyone.49. B: legal-rational authority and the rule of law.50. C: the consent and acceptance of the people. |
|---|--|