

2025 END OF SEMESTER EXAMS – LEATHERWORK 1 SOLUTION FORM TWO

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. C) Pelts are pegged in the sun with the flesh side facing down2. B) To rehydrate the pelts and remove unwanted materials3. B) Any written text, electronic, or graphic means of communication attached to the package4. B) Soaking pelts in an alkaline solution5. B) Fixing a label to a package to provide information about the product6. B) A wall hanging7. B) By enclosing the product to protect it from mechanical shock and vibration8. B) Preventing the item from contact with water, dust, and other elements9. B) By cutting through the belly of the animal10. B) The tanning process11. C) 10-16 hours12. B) Immersing pelts in a concentrated salt solution13. B) Granulated salt is rubbed into the flesh side14. B) To remove fur/hair from the pelt15. B) Removing excess flesh and fat from the pelt16. B) To remove lime/alkaline solution from the pelt17. B) It communicates how to use, transport, or dispose of the product18. B) Specialized exhibitions showcase only one product or similar products19. B) Availability of basic facilities20. C) Salt and Potash Solution | <ol style="list-style-type: none">21. B) To bond leather pieces together22. B) Skin or hide that has been tanned23. B) Curing pelts with a mixture of salt and disinfectants24. C) By encouraging potential buyers to purchase the product with appealing design25. B) It helps in identifying products easily and differentiating them from others26. C) To increase efficiency in work27. B) To prevent rusting28. C) They become mushroom-like29. B) It prevents accidents and damages30. C) Scissors31. A) To plan the exhibits better32. B) The time frame for which the exhibition will be held33. B) The main idea or focus of the exhibition34. C) They include a variety of products and are often called fairs or bazaars35. C) To mix chemical agents for tanning and dyeing36. B) Lime Juice37. C) To color or dye leather38. C) To increase efficiency in work39. B) To prevent rusting40. D) Dyes |
|--|--|